

Isabell Galloway

Isabell Galloway was a graduate of Marshfield High School, Class of 1931. At that time, Isabell must have been much like current seniors—thinking about her future which included plans for a college education. However, due to unforeseen circumstances, Isabell went straight to work, sacrificing many of her own plans so that it would be possible for another member of the family to go to college. In 1993, her brother, Gale Ferris, established an endowed fund in the name of his sister Isabell. Since that time, over 150 students have benefited from scholarships in the name of Isabell Galloway, who have demonstrated similar devotion to family.
