

Aaron Roblan Memorial Scholarship
For Speech and Debate

Aaron Roblan was a 1992 Marshfield graduate. He was a dedicated member of the speech and debate team and competed in the National competition. He went on to attend law school and embraced his career as an attorney in San Francisco. Aaron always credited the community of Coos Bay and the friendships he forged in these hallways for his sincere belief that, as another Marshfield graduate, Steve Prefontaine once said: "To give anything less than your best is to sacrifice the gift."
