

Helen (Robison) Doving

Helen (Robison) Doving lived a full life in Coos Bay, a born and raised native who graduated from Marshfield Senior High School in the Class of 1940, where she was the editor of the MaHi Times. Her four children graduated from Marshfield, as did her two grandchildren, all of whom were active in the choral, band, sports and student government programs. Professionally, Helen worked for the Coos Bay Lumber Company/Georgia Pacific Corporation for her entire career, knowing all facets of the company's timber operations.

Helen raised her family on her own timbered land in Englewood, where she resided from childhood and where she lived and managed her property.

Helen was a lifelong learner, community volunteer and strong supporter of continuing education, and would be pleased to assist those students who have achieved good results in their academic high school studies, including participation in extra-curricular activities at school and in the community.

Her can-do, optimistic and supportive, yet pragmatic demeanor served her, her family and friends, and the community she knew and loved, so very well.
